General Conference Opens In Salt Lake

All Sessions Satellited South Of The Border

By Kimberly King
Asst. News Editor

The importance of Salt Lake as one of the world's religious capitals is underlined this weekend as local and international leaders of the world's 15 million Mormons congregate for the 139th semi-annual global conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, held Friday through Sunday on Temple Square, the annual gathering will be satellite-beamed throughout America. A KSL official noted that Intelsat, in cooperation with various South American firms, will provide live coverage in Spanish to Lima, Peru; Santiago, Chile; Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Buenos Aires, Argentina; and Bogota, Colombia.

and cable circuits to 38 radio stations in Mexico and Central America, and closed circuit cabling to 80 chapels in Europe, this marks the widest coverage of general conference to date. No servicing of the Pacific or Far East is scheduled.

Friday sessions may be viewed in the Memorial Hall of the Wilkinson Center from 10 a.m. to noon, and from 2 to 4 p.m. The Saturday morning session, beginning at 10 a.m., will again be screened in the Memorial Hall. The Joseph Smith Auditorium will show the afternoon session from 2 to 4 p.m.

ORGAN'S EYE VIEW down the aisle behind podium catches members of the choir and church leaders pondering the message being presented by one of the general authorities. A capacity-plus crowd packs the Tabernacle to hear church authorities deliver messages of hope and inspiration.

THE WORLD-FAMOUS Tabernacle organ still produces the same angelic tones it did for the first general conference in the Tabernacle 101 years ago. As it plays, the voices of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir sing praises. The conductor is Richard P. Cordie and Alexander Schreiner is organist.

Ladies Asked To Heed — 'Religion Is Action'

Weekend sessions have been prelude by the annual Relief Society convolve. The Sunday School world conference continues its Tuesday through Friday sessions.

Addressing representatives of the 322,500-member ladies' auxiliary, Pres. Hugh B. Brown, member of the First Presidency of the Church, suggested that "while we live, we should try to make each day a year so far as beauty, nobility and a warm sense of brotherhood are concerned."

Brown cited the importance of interpreting religion in terms of service. "Man's curious ability to keep divine relationships in one compartment of life and human relations in another is wrong. They belong to each other," he affirmed.

Declaring that religious ideals should inspire daily usefulness and practical goodness, Pres. Brown exhorted, "We must remember that religion is action, not only action." "It must not become an isolated and unimportant afterthought," he added.

Emphasizing that the task of Relief Society members is to serve their fellowmen, Pres. Brown stated that "service is included in and is a product of love. So long as we love, we serve."

World-renowned President of the Church, David O. McKay, 96, is not expected to attend the meetings, due to poor health. His key-note message will be read by his son to those in attendance.

Addressing bishops and stake presidents from every state in the union and numerous foreign countries will be nearly 40 general officers of the church, including the Twelve Apostles.

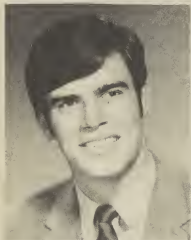

Assisting President McKay in the planning, preparation and conducting of the conference are his counselors, Hugh B. Brown and N. Eldon Tanner.

THOUSANDS JAM Temple in Salt Lake City to attend conference sessions. Due to limited seating the Tabernacle, many people will brave cold weather and rain to stand outside and listen to the meetings. This year, the new Salt Palace will be available for extra seating.

Duo Decorates Cakes

By Connie Dudley
Universe Staff Writer

Sherill Brookshy of Grass Valley, Calif., and her roommate, Ann Gibson, of Fresno, Calif., the seniors majoring in elementary education, decorate as Sherill has been doing it for five years, and Karen learned the art in Sherill last year. When asked she took a course in cake decorating. Sherill replied, "I, my aunt taught me the basics, then I sent for booklets."

Sally, she has taught herself. There is a lot more to cake decorating than just sculpting "Happy Birthday" on the top of a cake mix special. Sherill and Ann brought out a photo of one of their recent creations. The cake is clean and precisely decorated and so was their frosting table. It was covered with perimental designs of all forms and colors. "We take a lot of practicing on the table before we've decided what we want on the cake," explained Ann.

The frosting used is an interesting one. One reason for the frosting is so the edges of the cake can be squared off nicely.

The quantities are:

- 1 cup vegetable shortening
- 1½ cup powdered sugar
- ¼ cup evaporated milk
- 1 tsp. vanilla

Cream the ingredients at high speed for five minutes. Add more liquid if it is too thick. Add salt and flavor to taste. If a yellow frosting is desired, use butter instead of shortening; it tastes better that way. Cut out the desired amount of frosting. Color it and begin decorating.

Sherill and Karen have over 30 decorating tubes that make everything from huge leaves to miniature roses to a five lined musical staff. The tubes are inserted in a roll-up triangle of parchment paper, the frosting spooned in and the open end of the parchment folded closed.

Sherill and Karen say their favorite job is decorating cookies. Last Christmas they covered their tree with wreaths, Santa Clauses and candles and stars which had been ornamented with frostings.

Pei designs China's Expo '70 Pavilion

The Republic of China's pavilion for Expo '70 to be held at Osaka, Japan has been designed by I. M. Pei of New York. He was recently appointed designer for an expansion project at Columbia University and is the architect of the John K. Kennedy Memorial Library.

The 96-foot-high building is expected to soar above most other buildings at the international fair. It will occupy 4,150 square yards between the Japan and Korea pavilions.

Quips And Tips

For those who live in on-campus housing and have already spilled hair spray from a leaky can or nail polish remover on their floors and have watched in desperation as the color faded out of the tile, don't use shoe polish, but try butter. Yes, butter, when applied to the floor, rubbed in and allowed to set for several days, will recover the original tile color.

ELAINE MILNE wears a crepe dress and black slacks outfit the Spice Rack, 210 North University Ave., which can be worn without the slacks for more versatility in the coed's wardrobe. The paisley belt and pearls are accessories for the outfit, which is styled for off-campus recreational activities. The Martini Co. shoes in black patent feature fashionable chunk heels and laces.

Dare

Dare to be yourself, the age of the stereotype is past. Bouncy curls to her chunky shoes, Miss 1969 is variable in dresses.

One moment she is in an at-the-knee skirt and a nubby top. She lengthens the look even more with thick-heeled studding. Hours later she mystifies the males around her in an ankle. The guys must not mind, because they seem to watch her with interest as when she goes knee-length.

She is a rugged-looking masculine type in a frayed button-down collared shirt and a brushed leather hip-hugger with wide suspenders. She soon tires of the masculine and slips into a white high-collared Victorian blouse. Lace.

A BLACK CRUSHED pile fur fabric coat from Thomas' L. Specialty Store, 240 North University Ave., is modeled by Nancy Nelson, a sophomore art major from Provo. The coat is double-breasted and belted with a fur fabric trim. Marsha Mitchell of Las Vegas, Nev., a junior Spanish major, wears a yellow Sue double-knit dress with drop waist, tie sash and orange fringe.

ELAINE MILNE, a sophomore in sociology from Calgary, Alberta, Canada, wears a pleated pant-formal which comes in turquoise, hot pink and lime green from Haywards Ladies Wear, 68 West Center. Remember Haywards when selecting your formal for Homecoming.

surround her chin and wrists. She dons the daintiest slippers and is a contemporary Cinderella.

She discovers endless choices of contrasts and uses them to portray her highly-changeable moods. When she goes casual, she sometimes dresses rustically with a pair of blue farmer-style overalls, a white blouse and a red kerchief knotted around her neck. Then when she feels like everyone else, she dresses commonly in a bright BYU sweatshirt.

She is not chained by her environment. She escapes from the U.S. into exotic eastern lands with fabrics imported from far-off countries. Chinese silk scarves, boldly-printed yardage from India and Pakistan and furs from the snowy northern countries contribute to her diversified wardrobe.

A POLYESTER KNIT one-piece black and white dress by Robert Peters, Mica of Rome, with a paisley bolero and braided trim is worn by junior Kimberly King of La Crescenta, Calif. Kimberly is a broadcast communications major.

ATTIRE FOR A chilly football game, a Panther-plus cape and pants outfit from Castleton, 461 North University Ave., is worn by Linda Williams, a sophomore in psychology from Provo. The navy cape is wool, and the pants are red, white and navy blue plaid with bell-bottom flare. The Latinas shoes come in black calf or navy with red trim.

BUTTONED AND BUCKLED footwear is featured from Randall's Shoes. The square-toed button shoes come in navy, brown and black patent leather, and are $17. The triple-strapped shoes with buckle are available in navy and black patent and red calf for $15. Randall's reminds BYU coeds that Skooters are cuter.

Football Battle Pairs Cougar-Devil Offense

By Bob Hudson
Asst. Sports Editor

BYU's Cougars travel into the land of sunshine and cactus this weekend to do battle with Arizona State's Sun Devils, one of the early favorites for the Western Athletic Conference football crown.

For 10 Cougar players the trip will constitute a homecoming. The group includes Phoenix natives Gary Harmann, Tim Roberts, Eddie Nichols, Bill Glatch and Scott Brayer. Other Cat footballers from the cactus country include Dennis Finrock from Yuma, Dan Bowers of Mesa, Scott Lounsbury of Tucson, Ray Crandell of Heber and Mike Langford from Tempe.

The Cats will have their hands full in trying to contain the ASU club. The Devils lead the league in total offense with a per game average of 424.5 yards.

Defense has become the name of the game for the Cougars. Against Iowa State's cyclones the Cats allowed a 47 yard field goal (the touchdown on the punt return is charged to the offense).

but unfortunately the of unit was unable to get into for any sustained drives.

Total defense statistics show Mountain Cats on top with game allowance of 248.5. The defensive unit also second in the loop in pass defense with a mere 97.5 yards per Colorado State minus first allowance of only 63.5 yards game vs the air lanes.

Both the Cougars and the Devils want the victory Saturday night. The Cats need the prove to themselves that better than they appeared last weekend, and the Devils the win to get the quest for conference crown off the foot.

The last time the Cougars the Sun Devils was in 1961 year they won the WAC. ASU won last year's game snow-covered field in Provo score of 47-12.

ASU and BYU have played games since the series began in 1935. The Devils hold the with 10 victories and only losses.

Pigskin Prognostications

THE DAILY UNIVERSE board of prognosticators again invites the BYU students and faculty to challenge its predictions on 15 top football games around the country this weekend.

Games are selected to include all the Western Athletic Conference games as well as other top games which seem the least likely to be one-sided contests.

To enter the competition, simply clip the following list of games, circle the teams at the left you think will win in each case, write your name and telephone number at the top and take the clipping to THE DAILY UNIVERSE office, 538 ELWC, before 5 p.m. today (Friday). Only one entry per person.

The person submitting the entry with the best record will have his predictions for next week appear alongside those of the permanent board. If scores are included they will denote the winner in the event of a tie.

This week's guest is Les Oegerle, a senior in Business Management, from Minneapolis, Minn.

Beginning this week THE DAILY UNIVERSE is including prognostications from BYU's IBM 360/50 computer.

Results of this weekend's games and the prognostication winner will appear in the Monday issue of THE DAILY UNIVERSE.

Berliners Clobber Y Kickers

By Jim Hunt
Universe Sports Writer

Utah's largest soccer crowd in 32 years watched a classy, well-disciplined Free University of Berlin team beat BYU Wednesday night, 5-1.

For the Cats, it was their first home defeat since 1967 and only the second loss since May, 1968.

BYU was never really outclashed by the Germans, but they were never really in the game either. They defended and moved the ball adequately, but the scoring punch was lacking. The defense yielded somewhat under the increased pressure.

The crushing blow came just before halftime. With just 25 seconds remaining, Carlos Merino fouled Detlef Gutkauss in the penalty area. When Berlin captain Ralf Baer converted the free kick, BYU's halftime deficit was 3-0 instead of 2-0.

Baer finished the game with two goals and an assist. Klaus Werner, Reinhard Dauge and Gutkauss scored the others. Gutkauss and Werner Sperling also gathered assists.

US-GERMAN FRIENDSHIP was but one advantage Wednesday night's soccer contest between the Free University of Berlin and the BYU soccer team. Utah's largest soccer crowd, 32 years watched the Cougar team bow to the visitors, 5-1.

With the Cougars down 4-0, Maurice Escobar scored the BYU goal on an assist from Christian Petersen. Petersen now has five assists in two games.

Dauge, Baer and Werner led the German team. They seemed to be everywhere with the ball, while Klaus Muller executed his sweep in the 3-3-4 format perfection.

Now the Cougars are facing the prospect of meeting the University and the Air Academy on a road trip, weekend.

In Provo Saturday, BYU takes on United "B" at 1:30.
